Woman: Hi, how can I help you?

Man: Yes, so I have this small problem. My wife and I were here last week. We bought a pair of shoes for our son. But, unfortunately, I came to return them today.

Woman: Oh, I see. Did something happen to them? Your son doesn't like them?

Man: No, nothing like that. We got the wrong size. We need size 42, not 41.

Woman: Oh, OK. Can I see those shoes?

Man: Yes, here they are.

Woman: Hmm... I'm afraid currently we don't have that size in stock.

Man: So, can I get my money back, instead?

Woman: Oh, I'm afraid you can't do that. You can wait, though – in about 2 weeks' time we should have that size in stock again.

Man: Oh, that's great!

Woman: OK. Give me your phone number then. I'll call you as soon as we have them in stock again.

Man: Thanks a lot!

For some people it won't sound special at all but my best birthday gift was food. Specifically, a dinner that my dad cooked for me. The funny thing is that he can't cook at all, but he really tried and everything was delicious. He even baked a cake...it looked really ugly but it was so tasty! Of course I got many other things on that day but this dinner was the best. Now every time I'm sad I look at the photos from my last birthday!

My best friend made a cool present for my last birthday. She printed lots of photos of us together and even asked my parents for some photos from my childhood. Then she pasted them all into a huge album and decorated each page with different drawings and quotes. The last pages are empty so I can paste even more photos of us together.

I got a wallet for my last birthday. First I thought there'll be money inside but instead of money my parents put various gift cards to different shops. I was so happy! It showed that my parents know exactly what shops are my favourite and that they know me very well. They even included a gift card to my favourite restaurant!

Last year was my 14th birthday so my friends got me 14 small presents. They packed them in a huge box so I had a lot of fun unpacking it. There were many things inside – a CD with my favourite music, a gift card to my favourite clothes shop, a framed photo of us together. I also got a birthday cake from my favourite bakery and some money from my sister.
